

NOVENARY CHART POSITIONAL MEANINGS

1. The person, place, or thing that is the main focus of the question, i.e., the grammatical subject of the question.
2. The heart of the matter, i.e., the central issue or main factor underlying the entire situation.
3. The other person, place or thing involved in the matter, i.e., the grammatical object of the question (explicit or implied). If there is more than one object, the querent should assign the most relevant one to this figure before casting the chart.
4. A factor related to the subject (1st figure) that is either working in favor of or working against the answer to the question (6th figure). If this figure shares the same quality of movement, ruling element, or sub-element with the 6th, then it is accordant with the answer and represents a supporting factor. If this figure does not share any of the said attributes with the 6th, then it is discordant with the answer and represents a hindering factor. The conceptual meaning of this figure will then describe how it is supporting or hindering the answer.
5. A factor related to the object (3rd figure) that is either working in favor of or working against the answer to the question (6th figure). If this figure shares the same quality of movement, ruling element, or sub-element with the 6th, then it is accordant with the answer and represents a supporting factor. If this figure does not share any of the said attributes with the 6th, then it is discordant with the answer and represents a hindering factor. The conceptual meaning of this figure will then describe how it is supporting or hindering the answer.
6. The basic answer to the question.
